Programs:

On September 22, Illene Tucker will be doing a hands-on project of Precision Piecing. Everyone will make a block and we will sew them together at the end of class and have a quilt to donate or sell at our Quilt Fest. Everyone should bring a Fat Quarter either a Darker shade of Yellow or Blue, Sewing machine with quarter inch foot, sharp straight pins, a stiletto, small cutting mat and Rotary cutter and Ruler.

On October 27 Mary Traxler will be doing a Collage Class. Mary has purchased bolts of Steam a Seam at a 50% discount and it was discussed how to sell to class attendees. It was decided to allow Mary to accept the purchase directly from attendees. Cost is $5 a yard and 3 yards are needed. She also handed out a supply list.

Quilt Fest: The dates for Quilt Fest 2022 are April 8 & 9. Cheryl Feyen had designed a flyer to promote the Quilt Fest and updated the Auction Registration forms. She is asking for two photos of the Auction Quilts for promotional purposes. Mary Traxler will be placing all the registration forms online.

Old Business: The Guild took in $200. at the Mt. Zion's Harvest Fest Craft Show.

New Business: The members voted to have the Christmas Luncheon catered. However, anyone wishing to bring a dessert, it will be most appreciated.

The meeting adjourned at 11:00 p.m. on a motion by Helen Parker.
